

ROYAL LIVER BUILDING

The Royal Liver Building's Remembrance Tribute

This light show has been commissioned as a tribute to all the men and women past and present of our armed forces.

Thank you for your service

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

The Remembrance Day light display tells a very special story. This is the storyboard that explains the various chapters of the show.

1 In Flanders Fields

Bright poppies grow slowly out of a field, swaying gently in the wind with the blue sky and clouds drifting in the background.

2 In A Scarlet Tide

A swathe of Royal Chelsea Hospital Poppies, a soft undulation of black and red.

3 Row on Row

Crosses adorn the facade, a somber reminder of the cost of war

4 Her Majesties Armed Forces

The Army, Air Force and Navy - soft undulating waves, green fields and floating clouds, a soft undulation of black and red.

5 Be the Best

The pulsing march of the British Army make their way in a wave of green around the base of the building.

6 Made in the Royal Navy

This march sees the blues of the Royal Navy showcasing around the middle of the facade.

7 Find Your Force

The Red Arrows fly around through the blue skies, highlighting the force of the RAF.

8 The Poppy's Bonfire Spread

Slowly pulsating files of Red poppies slowly waft against a green background. The growth of something beautiful in the aftermath of horror.

9 We Will Remember Them

The sun sets across the building fading from blues to golds and reds to show that in the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

ROYAL LIVER BUILDING

We would also like to commemorate those members of the Royal Liver Friendly Society who gave their lives in service. Their names forever engraved in the history of the Royal Liver Building

When you go home,
Tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow
We gave our today.
